

Company Description

WGS Systems is a Maryland based small business specializing in airborne sensor and mission management systems engineering, development, integration, test, training and support. They are a premier developer of integrated surveillance systems on manned aircraft, UAS, ground, and man-packable platforms.