

Lukos LLC
Corporate Capabilities
 8(a) Small Disadvantaged Business
 Service Disabled Veteran Owned Small Business

Overview

Lukos delivers professional services to the Federal Government. Our core focus areas include support to acquisition programs, technical and engineering advice, training and operations support, logistics planning, maximizing human performance, and healthcare advice. We have ongoing experience working with special operations forces, acquisition program offices, and major joint commands. Lukos is an SBA certified 8(a) and VA certified Service Disabled Veteran Owned Small Business (SDVOSB) based in Tampa, Florida.

What We Do

Technical & Program Management Support	Training, Logistics, & Operations Support	Research & Development Support	Healthcare & Improving Human Performance
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •Program management •Logistics planning •Budget analysis •Technical analysis •Systems engineering 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •Exercises and training •Logistics coordination •Theater Security Cooperation 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •Cooperative research •Technology scouting •Advancing breakthrough technologies for special operations use 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •Research and medical support •Healthcare process improvement •Healthcare program management •Advanced statistical modeling to predict human performance

Our Current Customers, Performance Locations, and Capabilities Delivered

SOCOM - Special Operations Command		Tampa, FL; Fayetteville, NC; Columbus, GA; Colorado Springs, CO
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •Global Battlestaff and Program Support (GBPS) •AFSOC Emerald Warrior Exercise Support 	Program Management – Acquisition program management in support fixed wing aircraft including unmanned aerial vehicles and maritime platforms for both surface and subsurface special operations missions Engineering and Research – Engineering and program analysis support to research and early stage development of technology requirements for Special Operations Forces. Focus on biometrics, communications systems, human performance, tagging-tracking-locating, sensitive site exploitation, non-lethal weapons, next-generation battlefield networks, mobile technologies, and medical technology. Logistics – Long-range planning to ensure system sustainment and training for units throughout a system’s lifecycle Budget & Finance – Budget and program analysis and tracking for long-term financial stability and execution Training and Exercise Support – Role players and scenario support for full mission profile exercise scenarios Military Resiliency – Behavioral health and medical services to improve resiliency in special operations forces Information Operations and Human Intelligence – Planning support for ongoing military operations
SPAWAR – Space and Naval Warfare Systems Command		Charleston, SC
EPLRS / TRM Engineering	Engineering and Training - Provide numerous US Marine Corps tactical radio systems with technical support developing servers and builds to include software integration, testing, information assurance, training, and logistics.
USAF - 711th Human Performance Wing		Dayton, OH; San Antonio, TX
Professional Support Services	Healthcare Support and Human Performance - Deliver a variety of experts to support the advancement of Air Force healthcare and improve aerospace medicine, human performance, human integration, medical delivery process improvement, technical analyses, and human-centered research.
CENTCOM - Central Command		Tampa, FL
Theater Security Cooperation	Security Cooperation – Analyzing requirements, plans, funding, and activities for CENTCOM’s engagement with our allies to develop, implement, and assess global partnership activities.
NORTHCOM - Northern Command		Colorado Springs, CO
Training and Operations Systems Analysis	Training Analysis – Serve as training subject matter experts and Operations Research Systems Analysis support. Survey training programs, collect and analyze data, and develop and evaluate Measures of Effectiveness to improve Homeland Defense training and exercise programs.
INSCOM - Army Intelligence and Security Command		National Capitol Region
Statistical Analysis and Support	Advanced Data Modeling - Provide data collection, management, and statistical analysis based on recruitment, assessment, selection and training procedures of the organization’s unique personnel development pipeline.

Differentiators

Leading Edge Customers – We have demonstrated success meeting extremely high performance standards required by Special Operations Forces.

Price Competitiveness – We keep our costs low and price aggressively to win in the current budget environment. We maintain the ability to recruit and retain high quality employees by paying competitive salary and benefits while carefully controlling overhead costs.

Security Management – Nearly 70% of our employees hold at least a Top Secret clearance. 80%+ hold at least a Secret clearance.

DCAA Approved Accounting System – We have a robust financial system to handle fixed price, time and material, or cost reimbursable contracts.